

CIRCUIT COURT SETTLED MORE THAN 40 CASES

October Session Was Busy One
for Judge David H. Harris—Fifteen Divorce Suits.

12 SEPARATIONS GRANTED

Docket Consisted of Forty-Six
Petitions of Various Sorts and Seven Trustee Applications.

The October session of Circuit Court ended yesterday with a last-minute rush in disposing of a large number of cases. When Judge David Harris had announced that there were no more differences to be arbitrated and disposed of it was only after forty-six of them had already been passed upon. This number did not include seven trustee suits.

Fifteen couples were asking for freedom from further relationship with each other. Twelve couples had their desires gratified, one bill was disapproved by the court, another dismissed for failure of the husband to prosecute and the third was taken under advisement. Divorces were granted to the following:

Willie D. Hutton from William N. Hutton; Mrs. Hutton awarded the custody of their two children.

Christians Piper from Owen Piper.

Anna Roberts from Clarence T. Roberts, two children being given to Mrs. Roberts.

Augusta B. Baker from Elmer H. Baker.

Sadie Baker from George Baker.

William R. Calvert from Fay Calvert, the husband to have custody of the two children.

John Cross from Maggie Cross.

Offie Opel from Fred Opel, the maiden name of Offie Hill being restored and alimony of $10 a month granted.

Eliza J. Roder from Oscar E. Roder.

Hugh Taylor from Slic Taylor.

Martha Thomason from Sylvester Thomason, Mrs. Thomason being given custody of their children.

Leona Washington from Henry Washington, Mrs. Washington to get their three children and $25 a month to support them.

Lucile V. Jackson from Fred D. Jackson, with her maiden name of Lucile V. Elliott restored.

Myrtle Baker against Edward Baker, Mrs. Baker being awarded $25 a month alimony.

A bill by George M. Chinch asking divorce from Muriel Bertha Chinch was disapproved by the court.

Another by Eldon Griffin against Flovie Griffin was dismissed when the husband failed to prosecute.

Fred D. Cross, administrator, was denied a new trial against Charles E. Schoff and the case was appealed to the Kansas City Court of Appeals.

A case of R. B. Tilley against G. O. Caldwell was continued by consent.

Ethel Miller, defendant in a case with the state, asked for parole. No action was taken on the application.

In the case of F. P. Scott against J. H. Nixon, Scott was given a decree on the first count of a petition for title to disputed lands and also was given a decree on the second count for the possession and damages against Nixon.

The damages were assessed by the court at one cent. Scott was given the right to monthly rents and profits fixed at $12.50. Nixon filed a motion for a new trial but the motion was overruled. He was given permission to file a bill of execution and an appeal bond was fixed at $600.

The following cases were continued for the January 1921 session:

J. F. Howell and son against Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads.

State ex rel Exchange National Bank et al against J. T. Rowland et al, threatened of relator C. W. Davis being continued.

State ex rel Boone County against S. C. Hunt et al.

State against George Allison, with Allison's bond being fixed at $1,000.

Mrs. Jennie G. Johnson et al ex parte, Day K. Smith against Alfred H. Helden, W. A. Pickering, garnisher.

W. L. Poynter against A. H. Wade.

S. A. Meyers against Walker D. Hines, agent.

W. D. Hilburn et al against Iva Nelson et al continued, pending the distribution of funds.

Case given below were dismissed:
Abington Silo Company against John M. Green by the plaintiff.

Lewis W. Berry against D. Hines, agent.

Roger Northcutt against Lewis Hart et al dismissed by the plaintiff.

F. M. Wise against Fred Shelday was dismissed for failure of Wise to prosecute.

Charles H. Dombrock dismissed his case against S. J. Schooler.

Punishment was assessed against Sam Edwards at two years in the penitentiary and he was sentenced. Edwards petitioned for a parole but the application was denied.

The Boone County Milling and Elevator Company were granted judgment for $2316.97 when Paul A. Calvert et al withdrew the answer by permission.

A motion by Dennis Spelman, defendant in the case of Mansel Sims against Spelman, for a new trial was overruled.

The case will be appealed to the Kansas City Court of Appeals. An appeal bond of $8,000 was fixed.

The William Pollock Milling and Elevator Company, by allowing credit of $75, was granted judgment against Ed D. Moore for $87.03.

In the case of William Barnes against Ruth Barnes the court ordered the sheriff to pay back taxes on land sold out of the distributive share of Samuel R. Barnes.
